Continuous Teacher Empowerment Programme

Dear Educator,

Greetings from Team C.T.E.P!

Education around the globe has shifted from mere theoretical learning to more implementative learning. It's important to acquire multiple skills and intelligence by the learners. The role of a teacher is very critical to unleash the skills and intelligence of each student. In order to achieve the above a teacher need to be continuously guided with providing the knowledge of the contemporary research outputs and teaching - learning methodologies.

We the team CTEP are working on various aspects towards empowering the teachers on continuous basis.

One such endeavour of CTEP is to make available EDUTRACKS a monthly journal on teacher empowerment to all the educators.

EDUTRACKS is a monthly journal for teachers that has rich content which is needed to keep the teachers updated on Learner- centred class rooms, Problem Solving Skills, Critical thinking, Collaborative outputs, Knowledge on rapidly changing technologies and polices and related subjects.

EDUTRACKS is released every month with fresh inputs and experiences from all over the globe on education and methodology. It guides the teacher to refresh and upgrade the thinking and applications on delivering knowledge with new inputs. EDUTRACKS is an essential companion for every educator at every moment. It brings joy to the teachers by providing related and interesting experiences on classroom management with new ideas and directions.

It's time to promote the 5E's of EDUTRACKS –

Education, Exploration, Experience, Enthusiasm and Eccentricity.

Join us today in shaping the future of students with the help of teachers as a medium and school as the base.

Looking forward for your valuable feedback and response.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Team CTEP

Are you subscribing to the Journal of Community Guidance & Research?

The Journal of Community Guidance & Research, a trend-setting interdisciplinary journal, published every four months by Neelkamal Publications Pvt. Ltd., has carved a niche for itself in the field of specialized journals.

The Journal of Community Guidance & Research, featuring research articles on diverse aspects of community service has been widely appreciated by the teaching fraternity as well as research workers. In fact, it has become one of the oft-quoted journals in research writings. With this journal becoming one of the sought after journals in the research arena, can you and your faculty members deny yourselves an opportunity to be in touch with the trends in the area of community service? It would be no exaggeration to state that the journal will contribute immensely to the intellectual capital of its readers, whether they are associated with educational institutions, voluntary organizations or corporate houses. The rich content of the journal will more than compensate for the subscription amount, which is Rs.1500 per annum. In other words the journal provides real value for money. Can one ask for more? The three issues of the journal published every year in March, July and November, will be packed with content that would be hard to resist.

Any library or individual, who is serious about enriching the resources of his or her learning resource center or library, would find the addition of the Journal of Community Guidance & Research a welcome one. Can you afford to be left out of the exclusive league of the readers subscribing to the Journal of Community Guidance & Research?

Looking forward to your subscription to the journal. The subscription form is enclosed along with this letter.
